So great has been the encouragement given Prof. R. S. Eubank throughout the State to become a candidate for State superintendent that he has, after visiting many localities, decided to act on their advice and shy his castor into the political arena. We will be sorry indeed, to give him up and his place would be hard to fill. This voice of the sentiment of nearly 100 per cent. of the pupils and patrons of this school district.

A 19-year-old wife in Boston, after four unsuccessful attempts at suicide, finally ended her life by swallowing carbolic acid.

Louisville saloonkeepers observed rigidly the Sunday closing order, only one case being reported by the police of a violation.

A tornado struck Claremore, I. T., and two business houses, three residences and numerous smaller buildings were demolished.

The coal strike in Illinois has been settled by an agreement between the miners and operators. Sixty thousand men have been idle for two months.

The public will be shy of Chicago lard when it realizes that human bodies often furnish the material. The disclosures of an investigation there are enough to make the stomach revolt and refuse to perform its proper functions.

Revolting disclosures were made by A. M. Simmons, former Chief of the Chicago Bureau of Charities, as to human bodies rendered into lard in packing plants without an effort at cleaning the caldrons. The lard was later consumed by the public.

For the third time since the murder of the Carter children, J. G. Rawlings and his sons, Milton and Jesse, and Alf Moore, colored, were sentenced at Valdosta, Ga., to be hanged. The date fixed is Friday, July 13.

Officials at Cynthiana discovered that two of the bars to the cell once occupied by Curt Jett, in the county jail, were made of wood, painted in imitation of iron. It is believed that the bars were placed there when the jail was built, and that Jett never knew how close he was to liberty.

Jake Noble, charged with the murder of Grant Holliday, a deputy sheriff of Breathitt, was dismissed in the Circuit Court on motion of the Commonwealth. A motion had been filed by the Commonwealth asking that the case be transferred to Wolfe county, which was objected to by the attorneys for the defense. The Nobles are related to the Cockrill faction, which is now in power in Breathitt county.

Spain's day of joy following the marriage of King Alfonso and Queen Victoria of Battenburg was abruptly ended by the work of a bomb-thrower, whose well directed missile fell near the royal coach and cost 16 lives. The King and his bride escaped through the agency of an electric wire, which deflected the bomb. The police arrested Manuel Duran, from whose room the missile, concealed in a bouquet, was thrown.

How to Break Up a Cold.

It may be a surprise to many to learn that a severe cold can be completely broken up in one or two days' time. The first symptoms of a cold are a dry, loud cough, a profuse watery discharge from the nose, and a thin, white coating on the tongue. When Chamberlain's cough remedy is taken every hour on the first appearance of these symptoms, it counteracts the effect of the cold and restores the system to a healthy condition within a day or two. The many friends of Mr. "Thompy" Cooper were grieved to learn of his injuries sustained in the horrible wreck at Louisville and rejoice that it is no more serious. Mr. Cooper is so popular here and elsewhere that it is almost like a relative one looks upon him.

Wm. Madison Meeks has succeeded J. L. Johnson as postmaster here. Mr. Meeks is popular on both sides of the political fence and will doubtless make a good postmaster. Ernest Flint is clerking for G. A. Walter and has been for the past two weeks. He is a good boy and makes a fine little salesman. Indeed, Mr. Walter never has any other kind. Engineer Sam Love, of Somerset, fell while trying to catch the local caboose here Monday afternoon. He was eating a lunch at the restaurant when his train started to pull out and when he reached the caboose he attempted to get aboard and was thrown into a culvert about 20 feet deep and his back was severely sprained. Unknown Friends.

There are many people who have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with splendid results, but who are unknown because they have hesitated about giving a testimonial of their experience for publication. These people, however, are none the less friends of this remedy. They have done much toward making it a household word by their personal recommendations to friends and neighbors. It is a good medicine to have in the home and is widely known for its cures of diarrhoea and all forms of bowel trouble. For sale by W. N. Craig, the popular druggist, Stanford.

JUDGE JOHN W. HUGHES, of Mercer county, is a candidate to represent the Eighth Congressional District of Kentucky in Congress, to succeed Hon. G. G. Gilbert, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

HON. R. W. MILLER, of Madison county, is a candidate to represent the Eighth Congressional District of Kentucky in Congress, to succeed Hon. G. G. Gilbert, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

M. F. NORTH is a candidate for Representative of Lincoln county, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

THE way the congressional districts in several of the States are endorsing Bryan for the Presidency is a pretty strong indication that the drift of Democratic sentiment is decidedly towards the Nebraska statesman. Always an attractive personality, with the strongest courage of his convictions, Mr. Bryan has learned a great deal in these last 10 years, and while he holds to many of his original ideas they are retained solely because of investigation and observation, and not for the purpose of proving himself a know-all. He is known and loved by Democrats everywhere, and he is no longer the unknown quantity that was sprung on the country at Chicago in 1896. In fact he is the greatest man in the party and if he is not the next President signs go for naught, and Roosevelt and other Republicans will have stolen his thunder to great purpose.

SUPREME judges have a right to retire at 70 years of age, but Justice Brown is among the few to do so, quickly after becoming eligible for retirement. He was 70 last March. Only two or three justices before him have retired as early as they were privileged to. He leaves on the bench the Chief Justice, who was 73 some months ago, and Justice Harlan, who will be 73 on Friday. The Chief Justice ought to hold his place until the country has had a chance to elect a President who will appoint a Democrat to succeed him. Justice Brown has been on the bench for 31 years as a District Judge and 16 years as an Associate Justice. The President now has a chance to put Secretary Taft out of his misery, but he would undoubtedly like to make him Chief Justice.

A NEW YORK architect and builder is quoted as saying that New York will have a 100-story building, "not yet, but soon." He adds that in "New York we must keep on building and must build upward." When the most of Manhattan island is covered with 100-story structures the problems of transportation, illumination and sanitation will be something tremendous. At the rate New York is filling up she will have to go up, as there is no more space to utilize on the ground.

A FEW years ago, in the interest of a patent mail box manufacture, the post-office department issued an order that those who did not provide themselves with such boxes would not be served. Some refused and were cut off from their mails. Congress has, however, put a stop to such graft by passing a bill providing that patrons of rural routes can use any kind of box they wish, a right they should always have had.

ALTHOUGH it has been 41 years since the war closed, 68 members of the present Congress served in the civil war—24 Senators and 44 Representatives. There are 11 Federal veterans and 13 Confederates in the Senate. Forty-three Federals and 25 Confederates are in the House. Nearly all of them are nearing the allotted span of life, but most of them are hale and hearty.

THREE Southern States—Mississippi, Louisiana and Tennessee—have enacted statutes making June 3 Confederate Memorial day. Every Southern State ought to follow and do everything to perpetuate the memories of those who fought and died for the cause they loved.

There was no discussion of the measure. Democrats of Indiana will meet in Indianapolis on Thursday and nominate a State ticket. A platform, already drafted, indorses W. J. Bryan for the presidency in 1908.

Congressman Ollie James told the Cincinnati Enquirer man that Senator McCreary will be his successor. This will make the Madison county man feel as good as he looks.

The official call for a meeting of the Democratic State Executive Committee in Louisville on June 12 was issued Saturday at Frankfort. The manner of selecting nominees for State offices will be settled and a time fixed. The question of nominating a candidate for the United States Senate will also be considered at that time. It is believed that the regular election day will be agreed upon as the time for the primary, and that the senatorial race will be settled then, too.

AS is well known, an election on the whisky question will be held here Saturday. To the credit of our people be it said there has been little, if any, of the "shirt-tearing, whooping and dirt-flogging," most always attendant on such elections, and we sincerely hope during the few days elapsing those who are managing the campaigns will continue to acquit themselves as creditably as they have thus far. Men are easier led than driven and vinegar never catches flies. Harsh words and bad temper will avail nothing and he who indulges in such will help to damn the cause he espouses. It seems to us that men can honestly differ as to the best way of dealing with the question before us and the whisky man or prohibitionist who is so narrow-minded as to charge that those who do not agree with him are not honest, is too small a potato to be considered a human being and too idiotic to be outside of a feeble-minded institute. Consider the question well before you vote and vote for what you believe to be for the best. That is just what we propose to do.

One Hundred Suits at Half Price.

The skeptic says: "How can a store sell goods at a loss and live? It can't be done."

Yet it is being done at our store. The loss in a well-managed store is but a small fraction of the regular business. Most of the goods must be sold at a profit, of course.

The Suits we offer at Half Price

are "remainders"—the small windup of last season's business.

Our loss is our customer's gain.

Dollars do double duty in purchasing these Suits. $5 buys a $10 Suit.

KIDDS' STORE.
Mrs. Clarence Turpin died of puerperal survived the mother but six hours.

The air is resonant with the monotonous drone of the 17-year locusts, which appear to have vastly multiplied in the last cycle. The nervous sufferers who enjoy greater variations of melodies than characterize tom toms and locusts are counting the days of their affliction, which coincide with Christ's famous fast.

An up-to-date, hustling young farmer, who is bossing his first garden, in collecting a supply of seeds, bought all the packets of asparagus he could get, being especially fond of the vegetable and called for an explanation of his wife's inordinate laughter when he displayed the supply with a boast that they would not be short on that delicacy this year.

Mrs. Kate McKinney has gone to Okla-friends in this vicinity. Ollie puts in the greater part of his outing as gen-zeal after his hard manual work.

Whilst this neighborhood has not experienced the distress so nearly universal over the State, no farmer or gardener remembers a more timely rain than the one which broke the late May drouth. Every tobacco plant which was large enough to be transplanted is growing in the field. The oats crop has been restored to promise and the unusually late garden crops are growing with almost audible luxuriance. The strawberry crop was thought doomed to a dwarfed, knotty failure, but is developing nearly a full, first-class yield. Stock is literally wading through pastures, to which the profusion of white clover imparts the appearance of a covering of snow. The hayseed's stereotyped wails of complaint with conditions are suspended for a brief spell and a broad, infectious smile of momentary content prevails. Even the developments of universal graft and disregard of laws, sacred and profane, disturb but little, as nature smiles while the clouds weep and the taxpayers' urgencies are deferred.

REMARKS.—In offering the services of Dare All to the public, I take occasion to state, without presumption, that I have been a breeder and handler of fancy saddle horses for 25 years and experience has taught me to know and appreciate a high-class one. Dare All is the result of careful pampering breeding and comes as natural result of mating the very best mares with the foremost stallions the State has afforded.

Carrying about 25 per cent. of King William blood, a greater per cent. than any stallion in service in the State, King William being regarded as pre-eminent for fancy saddle and harness horses.
Dare All, sired by the now coming famous Dignity Dare, he in turn by Chester Dare, following a long list of sires, every one a great show horse, out of mares that were equally as famous as show mares, and his dam, Fannie Mc., the greatest show mare I ever owned, having refused $1,000 for her, I think entitles him to the careful consideration of all prospective breeders. He is now just being started to the saddle, taking to the gaits as quick and handy as any I ever handled. I think he will be a grand show horse when finished. See him before booking your mares.

style in show horse sure. When one year old wore all honors in his class wherever shown; also the blue tie in sweepstake harness rings at same age. When a 3-year-old he was shown 14 times and wore 15 blue strings; has never been defeated in fancy harness rings; has always been the victorious stallion stake ring, as a breeder, when shown with three or more of his get,
for size, style and general conformation; and for all purposes. He has sired a horse with five distinct, gait, line acting racker, good in two walks and a nice looper; very positive in his trot under saddle and in harness, great all around action, as is required for an up-to-date sire of high priced saddle horses for saddle or harness. He is a sure enough harness horse, graceful, stylish and fast, can show eighths in 18½ seconds, a 2:28 gait, with but little handling; did this last fall one year ago after serving 90 mares in the spring. He is possessed of wonderful nerve and speed enough to get a trotter for track use or gentlemen's roadsters; large, handsome, stylish, heavy and strong enough to get carriage horses with a kindly disposition for all purposes of a family horse. He is the horse to sire parkers, stylish, graceful, substance and gait, line acting, a sorrel colt. The most profitable horse for the farmer and small breeder to produce is the horse which serves the widest range of purposes well. His colts are show colts; of the very highest type, blue string winners from the oldest to the youngest. 24 of his colts have been offered for and sold at an average of $500 and the average age of them is 2 years and 9 months.
